Relevant Skills	I am a 21 year old female. I am in my second year of studying the Bachelor of Nursing Science and aspire to hopefully specialise my nursing profession as a paediatric nurse. I am a person who loves to play sport and explore the beautiful area we live in. I also to love chill out watching movies and baking (although I'm not the best at cooking sometimes). As a babysitter, I am passionate about creating fun and partaking in the activities with the kids, making the time we spend together worth every second!
