Describe yourself	I am a highly-motivated individual who has always been passionate in childcare and early learning practices. I have been working in the child care industry for well over 2 years now and I have been loving every minute of it interacting with children. Working with children daily has its challenges however throughout my time working with kids, I have critiqued my methods and feel 100% confident around all children of all ages. I am always up for a challenge and given the opportunity to show my skills in a new environment would provide a positive impact.
